

SLEEPING IN A TRAIN CAR AND TRAVELLING BY BIKE AT THE ANDALUSIAN "WHITE VILLAGES"

Situated in Olvera Station, we offer cycling at Sierra greenway (36.5 km) and an original accommodation in the nature. Four bungalows that reproduce the train cars that go across the Jerez - Almargin railway in the XIX century. This greenway route from Olvera to Puerto Serrano in Cadiz and Seville provinces, is available for all, and especially for people who appreciate a slow-travel. Attractive, safe, accessible and very easy to do. You can discover the natural resources of Peñon de Zaframagón, roc declared nature reserve in 1989 and Special Bird Protection Area, that is home of communities of nesting birds and a large colony of griffon vultures. You can see a spectacular holm oak called "Chaparro de la Vega" a Natural Monument of Andalusia. The ride is easy and fun and you'll be passing through lots of tunnels, olives groves and Mediterranean forests.
